About Us

Clarington Library
Museums & Archives

Welcome from the CEO

Winter is here, and so is a season packed with exciting ways to connect, create, and explore at Clarington Library, Museums & Archives.

Whether you're seeking a cozy creative outlet, family-friendly activities, or a new way to make the most of your library and museum, we've got you covered!

We're thrilled to introduce Creativebug, our brand-new eResource for arts and crafts enthusiasts. With thousands of workshops, inspiring techniques, and printable patterns, it's your go-to source for winter creativity. And, with our new Book Locker at the Darlington Sports Complex, picking up your holds has never been easier—perfect for those busy winter days when every moment counts. Explore local heritage with specialty tours and programs at the Sarah Jane Williams Heritage Centre, including the return of Murder Mystery at Waverley Place!

Don't miss Winter WonderLearn, our award-winning Family Day festival on Monday, February 17 from 10am to 2pm at the Courtice Library! Packed with hands-on fun for all ages, a day of discovery and excitement that's become a seasonal favorite. Looking for more ways to keep the family engaged? Our March Break programs promise a week full of STEAM activities, stories, games, and special guests—perfect for curious young minds.

Dive into this guide and find your next adventure, project, or moment of inspiration. From new resources to unforgettable events, we're here to make your winter magical. We can't wait to welcome you!

Warmly,

Monika Machacek
